Frequently Asked Questions for the BLET Program

1. What sets the program at RCC apart from other basic law enforcement programs?

Robeson Community College's BLET student has access to a diverse group of instructors that teach each block. Our instructors range from patrol officers through command staff of local sheriff's offices and police departments. We also utilize NCSHP, ALE agents, and NC Magistrates to teach in their area of expertise. RCC's BLET student also go through a rigorous PT program to ensure they are able to pass the require POPAT.

2. How intense of a program is this?

BLET is a state mandated 640 hour course that takes approximately 16 weeks. RCC's program is approximately 700 hours. RCC's BLET program consist of about 60 plus hours of PT throughout the program. Students start PT at 6am, and are in class by 8am for their daily instruction. Students are held to a higher standard than traditional students, and this is because all law enforcement officers are held to that higher standards.

3. Do I have to wear a uniform?

BLET students are required to wear a uniform daily. Uniforms are ordered by the BLET department, and students cover the cost of uniforms through their required fees paid to the school. Students are provided three (3) sets of uniforms, and two (2) sets of PT uniforms, along with uniform accessories.

4. Is this program available for free?

BLET students can either be sponsored through an agency to waive their tuition, or be hired through an agency while they attend BLET. Students can apply for financial aid to cover the cost of books, supplies, and uniforms which average about $1200.

Military Criminal History

We need a criminal record check from every county you have lived since the age of 18. If you were in the military, we would need one from the military as well.

MILITARY

All military record checks need to come from Quantico, VA, N.C. The commission will not accept a criminal record check from the Provost Marshal's Office. If you were in the military (active duty) and stationed or deployed overseas, you will be covered by the military criminal records check from Quantico, VA.

Addresses are located below:

Website: <http://www.ncis.navy.mil/Resources/FOIA/>

NOTE: If you served more than one branch, you would need to obtain a military criminal record check from each of the branches you served (from the above-listed addresses).

In addition to military criminal records checks, we need local jurisdiction criminal records checks from every place you have lived since the age of 18 years old.

Example: You were 18 years old and lived and graduated high school in Fayetteville, NC (Cumberland County). After high school, you went to College at U.N.C. Pembroke (and lived in the dorms). After graduating from college, you decided to join the Air Force. You went to basic training at Lackland A.F.B. (Bexar County), and then you went to technical school at Sheppard A.F.B. (Wichita County). After technical school, you were stationed at Pope A.F.B., but lived in Hoke County. So, you would need criminal records checks from:

- Cumberland County (for when you lived there at 18 years old)
- Robeson County (for when you lived in the college dorms)
- Bexar County (for when you lived at Lackland A.F.B. for basic training)
- Wichita County (for when you lived at Sheppard A.F.B. for A.I.T. training)
- Hoke County (for when you lived in Hoke County but worked at Pope A.F.B.)
- Air Force Records Department (the address for your specific branch that was provided for you above)

NOTE: We need official or certified criminal record checks from every county (CONUS) you have lived in (and received mail). If you were traveling somewhere and were arrested in an area where you did NOT live, we will need an official or certified criminal record check from that county as well. Example: You lived in Florida and went to visit a friend in New York. While on the way to New York, you were charged with D.U.I. in South Carolina. You will need to obtain an official criminal record check from whatever county you were in when you received the D.U.I.

I've found the best way to obtain all criminal record checks is to type in your old address or military base into Google (i.e. "Ft. Huachuca county" or "4521 Main St., Fayetteville NC county"). After the county pops up, then Google that particular county's "Clerk of Court." Once you are on their website, type in "official (or certified) criminal record check" or attempt to find a phone number. Questions to ask are:

What is the process for obtaining an official or certified criminal record check (form or written request)?

Does the record check show both misdemeanor and felonies? NOTE: When you contact some states, they may show only felonies, which means you will also have to contact the misdemeanor department and obtain an official or certified record check from misdemeanors as well.

How much is it going to cost? (Sometimes, if you mention it's for a police academy, you may get it for free.)

How long will it take for the record check to get to your residence (the N.C. Commission will NOT ACCEPT emailed or faxed criminal record checks; everything must be done through regular mail).

CIVILIAN

For those who have never served in the military, you will need to obtain official or certified criminal record checks from each county that you have lived in since the age of 18 years old.

NOTE: If you went away to college and lived in the dorms while attending, we will also need you to contact that county clerk of court and obtain an official criminal record check as well.

So, for example, You were 18 years old, and you lived and graduated high school in Fayetteville, NC (Cumberland County), and decided to go to College at the University of Maryland (and lived in the dorms). After college, you got a great job and moved to Wilmington, NC. So you would need criminal records checks from:

- Cumberland County (when you lived in Fayetteville, NC)
- Baltimore County (when you lived in the college dorms)
- New Hanover County (when you lived in Wilmington, NC)

NOTE: If you were traveling somewhere and were arrested in an area where you did NOT live, we will need an official or certified criminal record check from that county as well.

If you contact the clerk of courts and they advise, they don't do criminal records checks, document the date, time, who told you what, and where they referred you to. *Sometimes you will be directed to a state agency that conducts the checks, which is fine, but always start with the county clerk of court first and make sure to attach your documentation of not obtaining it from the local level. THE OFFICIAL CRIMINAL RECORDS CHECK SHOULD BE MAILED TO YOUR RESIDENCE. When you get the criminal records check, please make a copy for yourself, and we at R.C.C. will need the originals.

OVERSEAS CIVILIAN CONTRACTOR

NOTE: For those that have worked overseas as a civilian contractor and are working on your criminal records checks. I contacted the legal department for N.C. Criminal Justice Standards Division, as some of you have had difficulties in getting the required documentation. The response is below:

These individuals need to contact the consulates for the country they worked in. This contact information can be found by using any internet search engine. They typically will provide the information for obtaining the criminal record check. This criminal record check can be used for meeting the enrollment requirement.

Suppose they received a response that seems over burdensome. In that case, the next option is for them to request documentation from the company that they were employed with, stating they did not get arrested while employed with them overseas. Before allowing the individual to enroll, you will need to provide whatever response you receive for staff review/approval.

If neither of these options work, please provide documentation showing that attempts were made (date, method of contact, and response) for staff review. These individuals cannot enroll in BLET without these criminal checks be done or by receiving waiver authority from staff.

If you have any questions, contact Ms. Chavis at 910-272-3650.
